A 30 x 50 and a 40 x 40 metal building differ very little in actual square footage, but the best end uses for each may be radically different. Using a 40 x 40 Metal Building as a Residential Garage . If your property allows space for the wider 40 x 40 metal building, you may find the square-shaped building has real advantages over the rectangular 30 x 50 . For example

30x40 Gable Barn Plans - BarnGeek.com

After retiring in December 2013 I ordered plans for the 30 x 40 gable barn. It took me a while to really commit to getting started as I continued to toy with other designs. Finally, I decided, "what the heck, I can do this." So, I prepped the rough site that I had originally built with a bulldozer in 2011. I leveled and smoothed the fill dirt with my tractor in July and augured out pier
