A.J. Cronin's recently reprinted 1937 novel The Citadel is an old-fashioned good story with a moral about falling into and being redeeming from the sin of avarice. Andrew Manson is a young doctor who starts this novel as an assistant to a disabled physician in a Welsh mining town. This was one of A. J. Cronin's best books. I have read most of them and liked this one a lot. It has a good story which keeps you engaged in the book. It is somewhat dated since the writing style is very much that of the 1930s. If you like a good story you will enjoy this book.
