Magris: Danube | The Modern Novel

Claudio Magris: Danubio (Danube) This is one of those books that is not really a novel. Think Sebald or Calasso. However, Magris himself calls it a drowned novel and the introduction to my Italian edition says it is half way between a novel and saggistica, which means something like non-fiction or essay, so here it is. The book follows Magris' journey down the Danube from the source of the
