10 Fascinating Facts About The Real Dracula - Listverse

Bram Stoker's version of Dracula is one of the most timeless monsters in literature, and one of the first examples of a classic vampire elegant, brooding, and with a thirst for human blood.

Dracula Untold (2014) - IMDb

We are given the historical Vlad Tepes in this version, not the "Count Dracula" of Bram Stoker. Of course, some elements of Stoker are clearly here; the real Vlad had no vampire blood coursing through his veins. But this seems to take the middle ground, with Dracula being more timeless and superhuman, less evil or dirty. In some respect, he can even be seen as a hero.
