Half Overlay Cabinet: This overlay type is commonly used in the middle of a run of cabinets where the doors share a single partition wall. This hinge will allow the door to cover half of the partition wall (or approximately 3/8"). Don't confuse this with 1/2" overlay, which will allow a door to cover up the cabinet or face frame by 1/2".

Before you buy your cabinet hinges, you need to know what style of cabinet you have first. If you have a face-frame, then your cabinet would have more of a traditional look. With the Frameless cabinet, it would look more modern.

Overlay Cabinet Hinges | HingeOutlet

We carry a variety of Overlay Cabinet Hinges. The overlay is considered the correlation of the cabinet doors to the cabinet face frames. The cabinet overlay determines the type of hinge you will be using. The overlay refers to the size or type of the door, the hinge, or how the cabinet is built. Full overlay hinges are used for individual cabinets or cabinets on either end of a row of cabinets.
