Think and Grow Rich: A Black Choice by Dennis Kimbro

I always heard great things about the original Think and Grow Rich. But as a Black American, this version caught my eye. It was inspiring to hear about successful black business entrepreneurs. It was refreshing to see folks that look like me achieve so much success despite their obstacles.

Think and Grow Rich is a great read because it's told through timeless stories that WILL motivate you to reach your goals in life. I'm in the interview process for a few different sales opportunities and just finished another great read called the Sales Adventure Guide. Like Hill's book, The Sales Adventure Guide uses real life examples and is reality based not a bunch of mumbo-jumbo. I

Given that Think and Grow Rich: A Black Choice is a bestseller, the book should automatically be sold as an audiobook. I am a strong believer in engaging both visual and auditory learning. In doing so, the material from your book will become more embedded in the subconscious of those who read and listen to it. The original Think and Grow Rich has both, and so should yours! I strongly encourage

Think and Grow Rich: A Black Choice - audible.com I think it was too general and didn't touch on why we think the way we think and how to overcome that. And throwing in the few black people that became successful, although idyllic, doesn't really compare to the masses that have not and remain in a stupor. I feel almost no connection to a book that is marketed to people like me. I even felt slightly offended.
